Effective November 1, 2019, the Ontario government introduced the new Ontario Electricity Rebate (“OER”) under the Ontario Rebate for Electricity Consumers Act, 2016. The OER provides eligible customers with a 17.0% reduction on the amount of their bill before HST, effective November 1, 2021.

If your account relates to any of the following YOU DO NOT NEED TO COMPLETE THIS FORM – you are entitled to receive the OER automatically:

- A low volume account (demand for electricity of 50 kilowatts or less or uses not more than 250,000 kilowatt hours of electricity per year);
- A farm¹;
- A long-term care home².

If you have one of these accounts but you are not already receiving the OER, please contact us.

To see if your account is eligible, please complete the following Self-Declaration Form and return to our office by mail or email. If you have more than one qualified account, please use a separate form for each account.

STEP 1: Eligibility for the Ontario Electricity Rebate

Check the box that applies; you should check only one box:

- A bulk-metered multi-unit complex³ that is predominantly residential (other than a retirement residence) and all the following conditions (a, b, c) are met:
- a. The multi-unit complex contains at least two (2) qualifying units⁴, and
 - b. At least 50 percent of units are qualifying units, and,
 - c. No part of the multi-unit complex is one of the following:

² A “long-term care home” licensed under the Fixing Long-Term Care Act, 2021, other than an account that is also in respect of a hospital as defined in the Broader Public Sector Accountability Act, 2010.

³ A “multi-unit complex” is defined as a building or related group of buildings containing two or more units.

⁴ A qualifying unit consists of a self-contained room or set of rooms, including kitchen and bathroom facilities, that are for the sole use or intended use of the unit, and are occupied and used as a residence.

- A hotel, motel/motor hotel, resort, lodge, tourist camp, cottage/cabin establishment, inn, campground, tourist home, bed and breakfast vacation establishment/vacation home;
- A trailer park that is not a mobile home park;
- A hospital;
- Short-term living accommodation provided as emergency shelter;
- Living accommodation occupied by a person for penal or correctional purposes;
- A premise that is subject to the Ministry of Correctional Services Act or the Child, Youth and Family Services Act, 2017;
- Living accommodation provided by an educational institution to its students or staff where,
 - i. The living accommodation is provided primarily to persons under the age of majority, or all major questions related to the living accommodation are decided after consultation with a council or association representing the residents, and
 - ii. The living accommodation is not intended for year-round occupancy by full-time students or staff and members of their households;
- A university, college of applied arts and technology or other entity that provides post-secondary education;
- A premise that is identified as mining, quarrying, and oil and gas extraction; utilities; construction and manufacturing (North American Industry Classification System codes 21, 22, 23, 31, 32, 33).

- Common elements of a multi-unit complex that is predominantly residential, meaning any part of the multi-unit complex that is not a unit and each of the following conditions (a, b, c) are met:
 - a. Account relates at least partly to common elements of a multi-unit complex;
 - b. The multi-unit complex, including any part of the multi-unit complex to which the common area account does not apply, contains at least two qualifying units⁵;
 - c. At least 50 per cent of the units within the multi-unit complex, including any part of the multi-unit complex to which the account does not apply, are qualifying units.

- A retirement residence meaning a multi-unit complex that meets the following conditions (a, b) but is not a long-term care home:
 - a. At least 50 per cent of the units in the multi-unit complex are occupied or intended to be occupied as a permanent residence by at least one person who is 65 years of age or older and who is not related to the operator of the multi-unit complex.
 - b. The total number of persons who occupy or are intended to occupy the total number of units is at least six.

- A mobile home park⁶ as defined in the Residential Tenancies Act, 2006.

⁵ See Footnote 2 for the definition of “qualifying unit”.

⁶ A mobile home park is defined for OER purposes as “the land on which one or more occupied mobile homes are located and includes the rental units and the land, structures, services and facilities of which the landlord retains possession and that are intended for the common use and enjoyment of the tenants of the landlord”. A “mobile home” is “a dwelling that is designed to be made mobile and that is being used as a permanent residence”. Trailer parks that are not mobile home parks do not qualify for the OER.
